

A break-down of PIMP Michael's Spiritual Brothel

Selling Point #1...females go into detail bout Archangel Michael's sweet sweet armor.

Selling Point #2... females going on about Archangel Michael's army of legions as a high ranking commander.

Selling Point #3... His HUGE sword. Sexy. Look how this person drones on about big his sword is along with her other friends. Swords being a traditionally manly weapon. And ..muscles, and arms.

Freudian Phallic Symbols (ONLY TAKE A LOOK AT THE AMOUNT OF TIMES SWORD APPEARS)

My eyes were still closed to focus on what I was receiving in my mind's eye. I saw a large, magnificent white horse in the clouds. I wondered if it was Pegasus, the winged horse, but I did not see wings on the horse. I heard the facilitator tell us that Spirit should show us what it has in its hands. It was supposed to be an object that is still in existence on Earth or that a person still has. A shining, gleaming, thick, tall sword appeared in the blue sky. It was floating. The blade was radiating light. I knew it had to be Archangel Michael's sword. (Note: I was surprised to see the sword. I know the sword was a symbol for Archangel Michael. He is often shown in image and sculptural representations wielding his sword. I have some psychic friends that really get excited and "buy" into how powerful he is and how he has that sword. To be honest with you, I did not carry their excitement or enthusiasm about that. I wasn't a nay sayer. I did not disbelieve it. I was just more neutral about it. I tend to associate the sword with violence, and I know that is not what it represents when it is with Archangel Michael. It represents brandishing of Truth and justice. Nevertheless, to actually see the sword come in like that, clairvoyantly, surprised me because of my reservations. This is how I knew I was getting true visions because what I received bypassed even my own conscious thoughts & judgment and surprised me! It takes a certain amount of open-mindedness to not block what is coming in and to allow it, especially when it may conflict with your own beliefs or thoughts.)

Archangel Michael started to materialize behind the sword he was wielding. He looked solid and well-

MY REGULAR POINTS, on GLARING INCONSISTENCIES.

Regular Point #6... Channelers RARELY verify the vision of Michael behind the armor and glaive. There is no quality check but acceptance of the images beamed into the mind. The chances of a man in armor on a pegasus with a flamey sword existing in a literal sense, is astronomically low for multi-dimensional beings. Therefore, the exact image or view/composition of the entity that is being channeled has never been tested as of yet. It has been merely been accepted as 100% legitimate. Example : made of vapor or light or information..... not a reinterpretation of biblical new age thoughts.

Regular Point #7...Channelings are ridiculously long at times with predictions and love and light. These channelings NEVER mention an end to reincarnation being in a 'vessel' or an alternative view apart from being squishy light workers, scrambling to beat the dark foes like some kind of galactic power rangers. #mission, Example: ending up in a universe that has no polarity or other unfathomable concepts *the consciousness presented to us in the writings only speaks of the constant war this and that*

Big ASS Glaring Point #8...There is NO amount of cosmic knowledge presented in these channelings such as formulae or scientific knowledge of even the most basic physics of our planet, much less higher concepts that would even allude to advanced mathematics. The sizes or amount of dimensions, ...estimates of eons of how long wars have occurred on earth or even in the higher dimensions, absolutley nothing. Everything is written as if no one knew any mathematics or history *females cough* which says a lot. Because we all know females are bad at math in todays education system. As mostly females write these. That suggests the compelling force is not to understand or to advance as a SOUL, but merely parrot thought forms and visions as long as you repeat "love and light".

Other dubious Instances in History of what Archangel Michael says:

Michael the punisher if you dont do what he says:

“Why do you act cowardly, and are negligent in what two times now I have commanded you? Do you want to be punished once again for your disobedience? Arise, and have diligence in making known what I have commanded to you.”

Joan of Arc one of the first known woman to see and hear Archangel Michael, with similarities to todays women.

By "Gods Order" and a Vision of Michael, Joan of Arc (with no military training) is given tactical advice for the war

Channeling Keywords from Archangel M. from Channelers

#Beloved Ones #mission #light #StarSeed (Implies we are aliens depending on Micheal? Wtf?)
#god #cosmic #bluerprint #thought forms #lessons #illusion #soul #test #wayshowers (???)
sounds like a dated word, when was it first used?) #dear ones #light #love #I AM (insert angel name here or gfol) #dimensional #earth #ascending #divine #ascension #Sananda

Stupid Keywords Used by The Michael Crowd

#Diamond Core God Cell
#Diamond Light
#Ring-Pass-Not (matrix shield LOL)
#Diamond Star Fire (illuminati omg)
#Diamond Codes
#It can be so, Dear Ones. All you need do is believe!
I AM Archangel Michael.

A visual study of the most overused Archangel Michael Image on the net because (art theory and criticism).

- 1. First Impressions Big Ass (Phallic Looking Sword)
- 2. Androgeny
- 3. Elaborate Golden Armor
- 4. Holding the Heart Chakra area
- 5. Blue and Purple (Symbolic of Dimension or Aura or mental fields)
- 6. To strike down, hand movement.
- 7. Sacred Geometry Flower thing of life top *similar***
- 8. Looks like an eye *top geometry***
- 9. The image is poorly rendered or an old image that has not been updated for web 2.0.
- 10. The Image does not display that muscled power from the descriptions of the women. Strange.

SIDE NOTE INTUITIONS:

1. So the greys are in a collective hive of archon influences. .... the GFOL and other religions also want this collective hive to be joined by humans. as in galactic center. heaven. etc
2. Sensing that the GFOL and the ancient archons of the nag hammadi are competing demiurge gangs.

3. Channelers or even those prone to joining cults like heaven's gate:
Eagerness to please someone, in cult or invisible ethereal world.

4. Most channelings are written by the channeler and their level of literacy. Hence the disparity in some writings. This presents the question of, is the entity A.M. using their level of intelligence to put out it's information or are the women tapping into the thought form and recombining ideas over and over to get that 'spiritual high' of being tapped into something?
